Man Arrested for Exposing Himself to Teenagers

On April 9, 2008 at approximately 3:41 p.m., officers from the Town of Vienna Police Department received a report of a man that had exposed himself to two teenage girls. The two girls, ages 14 and 15, were walking southbound on Cottage Street nearing Locust Street at approximately 3:25 p.m. when they heard someone banging from the inside of a residential glass door.

The banging was coming from a residence on Hickory Circle S.W. As the girls continued to walk on without looking, the banging continued. As the girls looked up they saw an adult male, later identified as 59 year old Rex Howke, Jr. of Vienna, standing in the doorway in plain view behind the glass door. The man had a towel around his waist with an opening in the front which clearly exposed his genitals.

After positively identifying Mr. Howke, officers obtained a warrant for Felony Indecent Exposure. The officers returned to Mr. Howke's residence on Hickory Circle and arrested Mr. Howke. He was then transported to the Fairfax County Adult Detention Center where he was released on an unsecured bond of $5,000.00.

Anyone with any additional information regarding this or any other case is urged to call the Town of Vienna Police Department at 703-255-6366.
