Juvenile Female Assaulted

On May 26, 2008 at approximately 10:16 p.m., Officer Ken Smith of the Town of Vienna Police Department was summoned to the intersection of Center Street and Shepherdson Lane in Vienna. Units from the Fairfax County Police Department were speaking with a 17 year old female regarding an incident that had occurred within the Town of Vienna.

Officer Smith had the girl and her mother come to Vienna Police Headquarters for an interview. The girl stated that in the 200 block of Maple Avenue West a Hispanic male in his 30's, approximately 6' tall with short brown hair and a mustache, wearing a yellow button down short sleeve shirt and blue jeans, began following her and speaking to her in Spanish. The female victim spoke Spanish as well. The subject was further described as riding a green bicycle.

The man said he had seen the girl earlier and she was with a boy. He stated he was 22 years old, from Honduras, and wanted to be her boyfriend. At this point the man grabbed the girl's arms and began pushing her down a dirt trail near Shepherdson Lane. The girl began screaming and the man put his hand around her throat. The girl was able to fight the subject off and flee.
