

Town of Vienna, Virginia Police Department Media Information Release

Vienna Woman's Club Vienna Police Officer of the Year Officer Kenny Smith

On October 17, 2007 Town of Vienna Police Officer Kenny Smith was honored at a ceremony held at the Westwood Country Club as the Vienna Woman's Club Vienna Police Officer of the Year. In attendance were Mayor Jane Seeman, Councilwoman Laurie Cole, Councilwoman Edythe Kelleher, Councilwoman Maud Robinson, and several other members of the community as well as members of the Vienna Woman's Club. Vienna Woman's Club President Beth Abel and members of the club hosted the event and made the presentation to Officer Smith.

The Vienna Woman's Club Officer of the Year Award is an award that has been given to an outstanding member of the Town's police force since 1967. Each year the department is asked to nominate individuals worthy of recognition by the Vienna Woman's Club. The officer is then honored at an awards dinner and rides as an honoree in the annual Vienna Halloween Parade.

Officer Smith is a three year veteran of the Vienna Police Department. Although a mild mannered, quiet person by nature; Officer Smith makes many quality arrests and is very pro- active when it comes to police work. Having attended several classes to further his skills in interdicting drugs, he has made several key arrests in his commitment to keep drugs off the streets of Vienna. He is well respected among his peers and the other officers of the department are happy to see Kenny receive such an award.

Please contact MPO Bill Murray for further information at 703.255.6396 or wmurray@viennava.gov