TOBACCO USE PREVENTION PROGRAM FOR TEENS

Vienna, VA - In partnership with the Fairfax County Department of Neighborhood and Community Services, Club Phoenix Teen Center is offering a tobacco use prevention program through the Take Charge Program for teens. Program participants will learn what is in tobacco, the stages of tobacco addiction, how to say 'no' to peer pressure, how to advocate for no tobacco use in their communities and more.

The program will be held at the Club Phoenix Teen Center, 120 Cherry Street, SE, at 3:45 p.m., Tuesdays and Thursdays on March 13, 15, 20, 22, 27 and 29. This program is free and open to Club Phoenix members. For more information, call Tammy Funk at 703-255-5736.
