

Town of Vienna, Virginia Police Department Media Information Release

Residential Burglary Suspect Arrested

On January 11, 2017, Vienna Police and Fairfax County Police detectives arrested Jacob Michael Rhodes at his home on Freda Drive in Vienna and charged him with several felony and misdemeanor crimes including Burglary, Attempted Burglary, Destruction of Property, Petit Larceny and Possession of Burglariou Tools. Mr. Rhodes is being held at the Fairfax County Adult Detention Center without bond.

The arrest comes as the result of a cooperative investigation conducted by detectives of the Vienna Police Department and detectives from the Mclean and Reston District Stations of the Fairfax County Police Department.

Vienna Police detectives are confident that they have identified and arrested the individual responsible for a residential burglary that occurred on Moorefield Creek Road SW in August of 2016 and an attempted burglary that occurred on Upham Place NW in December of 2016. Detectives noted that an attempted burglary that occurred on January 9, 2017 on Moorefield Hill Place SW has not been closed as a result of this arrest. That case remains under investigation.

The Police Department would like to acknowledge the help of citizens who came forward to provide information concerning these cases and to thank the residents for their patience during this lengthy investigation. Anyone who has information to provide concerning these cases is asked to contact MPO Juan Vazquez.
